OF DEATH in plain terms, so that it may be properly classified. Last birthday of deceased must be given. Use ditto marks only when they will make the answer clear. Do not use abbreviations. Be sure that every question is answered. Physicians are requested to fill out certificates of death in their offices and not to leave them to be filled out by undertakers or others. Certificates should be written in ink and should be signed as soon as filled out. Every certificate must be filled out before a burial permit will be issued. Please read carefully the rules on the back of this certificate. Answer all questions as far as practicable. Be sure to write plainly and to spell correctly. Do not forget to sign your name. Do not fail to state the cause of death clearly and fully. Do not state the mode of dying, such as heart failure, asthenia, exhaustion, etc., without stating the primary cause. Do not state symptoms instead of disease. Do not state occupation instead of disease. Do not state old age as a cause of death. Do not state duration of disease instead of disease.
